

THE RICHMOND DISPATCH—FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1894.

COME DOWN TO WORK

COMMITTEES ORGANIZE AND ELECT OFFICERS FOR DEPARTMENTS.

Mr. Allen Chairman of Streets and Mr. McDowell of Relief of the Poor—City Hall News.

The Committee on Streets of the new Council held its first meeting in committee room No. 5 of the City Hall at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. City Clerk S. T. August called the body to order. Every member, except Mr. J. M. King, was present. Mr. Otway S. Allen was elected chairman and Mr. W. J. McDowell sub-chairman of the committee.

Upon recommendation of the City Engineer the following gentlemen were appointed his assistants for the next two years: Messrs. S. E. Bates, Jackson Bolton, F. T. Bates, and P. P. Taliaferro. The Engineer also named Mr. S. B. Jacobs as clerk to the department, and he was subsequently elected clerk of the committee by acclamation.

OFFICERS OF THE DEPARTMENT.

The Engineer recommended the election of the following officers in the street department, who were unanimously chosen: Masters of bands and carts, Messrs. G. H. Gardner, Daniel Cadeck, and J. T. Yeast; manager of the sewer force, Mr. A. F. McMath; night watchman of the many stables, Mr. George W. Allen; Chairman. Also announced that he would name his standing sub-committees.

The rules of the Council and the previous committee were adopted.

There was a great deal of discussion upon the report of the committee providing for street lighting in Manchester. The decision was, which was returned to the committee by the Council because of dissatisfaction as to the localities in which the work was ordered by this report. Mr. McMath made a wherein right to submit the old order, and in the old report as to the report of the new committee, and this was finally done by a unanimous vote.

The City Engineer submitted the names of grades of several street and wagon which were to be used in the work, and these were referred to the Council.

CALLED MEETINGS.

On motion of Mr. Ferrer, the president of the Common Council was requested to call a meeting of that body, to be held at Tuesday evening to act upon these matters, and the president of the Board was asked to summon his branch to an immediate meeting on Friday evening, heat, for the same purpose.

Called to the Poor.

The Committee on Relief of the Poor met last evening to organize for the ensuing two years. There were present Messrs. James T. Ferrer, N. C. Moore, John L. Blake, John C. Clark, and E. M. Pease, and Mr. Clegg, who called the committee. Mr. McMath was chairman, and Mr. McMath presented the name of Mr. Evans, and for that place, Mr. Clegg, and Mr. Clegg, whose general record has been satisfactory.

Mr. McMath was nominated by Mr. Clegg, and received three votes on the second ballot, while Messrs. Ferrer and Clegg received two and one, respectively, for the office. Mr. McMath's election was made unanimous. The committee selected Mr. Shedd as its sole chairman.

It was decided that the regular meetings of the committee should be held on Tuesday evenings in each month at 6.30 o'clock at the city almshouse.

North Carolina: Local rains; variable winds; slightly warmer weather.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The market for securities was dull again today, only 112,822 shares being traded in, of which American Stock alone figured for 6,900 shares. The undertone of speculation was firm throughout, the heaviness of Sugar having no influence.

London: Advanced upward movement in the general railroad list by taking moderate amounts of its specialties. Local bulls were encouraged by the position assumed by the foreigners, especially as to the value of the London & South Western, the Great Central, and the Midland.

Paris: Extra quiet; firm.

W. A. Jenkins was elected recorder.

Miss E. F. Baldwin and H. W. Whittle were chosen active and Moys, Channing Pleasant, A. R. Mayo, and A. W. Archer associate members.
